Re: U.S.A. v. Mark Ingram, 09 Cr. 71 (TCP)

Dear Judge Platt:

On consent of the parties, the Office of the United States Attorney, by Richard Donoghue, Esq., Assistant U.S. Attorney, and James C. Neville, Esq., counsel for the Defendant, Mark Ingram, it is respectfully requested that the sentencing in this matter, presently scheduled for Friday, January 8, 2010, be continued to a date in the middle to the end of February, 2010.

As this Honorable Court is aware, the defense has requested permission for a psychological exam to be conducted by Sanford Drob, Psychologist. Such exam was initiated, but Dr. Drob has informed me by telephone today that he will need to see Mr. Ingram once more before Dr. Drob can render a report.

I have spoken to Richard Donoghue, Esq., the Assistant U.S. Attorney assigned to the case, and Mr. Donoghue has no objection to this request.

This Honorable Court's consideration of this respectful request is most appreciated.

Submitted respectfully,

/s/

James C. Neville, Esq.
Counsel for Mark Ingram

CC: Richard Donoghue, Esq., AUSA
Clerk of the Court, EDNY
